Policy Statement and Purpose

VCU Creed: Philosophy for a University Community
Academic institutions exist, among other reasons, to discover, advance and transmit knowledge and to develop in their students, faculty and staff the capacity for creative and critical thought. At Virginia Commonwealth University, members of the community should strive to exemplify the following specific ideals in addition to other worthy ideals:

- To demonstrate academic and personal integrity.
- To respect the rights and property of others.
- To be open to others' opinions.
- To uphold academic freedom and freedom of intellectual inquiry.
- To appreciate diversity and to value and learn from the uniqueness of each person.
- To uphold the right of all persons to be treated with dignity and respect and to refrain from all forms of intimidation, harassment and illegal discrimination.
- To demonstrate and respect intellectual courage in situations that demand it.

Students are encouraged to engage in responsible social conduct that reflects credit upon the University community and to model good citizenship in any community. Students should not remain passively in the presence of violations. Students are encouraged to notify the proper authorities if they observe or have knowledge of other students violating the Student Code of Conduct.

Noncompliance with this policy by staff may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Noncompliance with this policy by students may result in sanctions as provided in this policy. VCU supports an environment free from retaliation. Retaliation against any staff who brings forth a good faith concern, asks a clarifying question, or participates in an investigation is prohibited.

8. The right to refrain from making any statement concerning alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

9. The right to know that any statements made by the Complainant and/or respondent can be used during the University student conduct process.

CHARGES AND STUDENT CONDUCT BOARD (SCB) HEARINGS

Any member or entity of the University community, including the OSCAI based on information provided to the university, or others outside of the University may file charges against a student respondent or student organization for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Any charge should be submitted as soon as possible after discovery of the alleged violation. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the written charge must be filed within six months of discovery of the offense. A charge shall be prepared in writing and directed to the OSCAI or other designated office. Once the charge has been submitted, the Director of OSCAI or designee will review the charge and appoint a Student Conduct Administrator to complete an investigation.

OSCAI will send a Notification Letter to the VCU email address of the respondent citing the specific charges and instructions to contact the Student Conduct Administrator to schedule a meeting to discuss the charges. The respondent will have five business days from the date of the Notification Letter to contact the Student Conduct Administrator. If the student fails to respond to the Notification Letter or does not attend the scheduled meeting, the University may proceed with adjudication of the charges without the student’s input.

The Student Conduct Administrator will complete an investigation of the charges in the Notification Letter. The Student Conduct Administrator will offer to meet with the respondent to discuss the charges. The Student Conduct Administrator may meet with the complainant as well as with any witnesses and examine additional information. Based upon all of the examined information and witness statements, the Student Conduct Administrator will make a determination of responsibility using the preponderance of the evidence standard. The student will have the following options based upon the Student Conduct Administrator’s determination:

1 - No Violation Established by the Administrator:

The Student Conduct Administrator will notify the respondent that the University has found the respondent not responsible for the violation(s) charged and that no sanction will apply. The matter will be closed without requiring further action by the respondent.

2- Violation Established - Administrative Adjudication:
Respondent accepts responsibility and sanctions

The respondent may accept responsibility for violating specified provisions of the Student Code of Conduct and agrees to complete the sanctions assigned by the Student Conduct Administrator. Students choosing this option may not appeal.

3 – Violation Established - Sanction Review Board (SRB):

Respondent accepts responsibility, but disagrees with sanctions

If the respondent accepts responsibility for violating specified provisions of the Student Code of Conduct but disagrees with the sanctions assigned by the Student Conduct Administrator, the respondent may seek review by the SRB. The request to the SRB must be submitted in writing and completed within five business days from the date of notification of the Student Conduct Administrator's determination. The SRB is comprised of three University Community members with at least one student and one staff or instructional faculty member.

The SRB will review the respondent’s written statement contesting their sanction, as well as a written statement from the Student Conduct Administrator explaining the recommended sanctions. The SRB will assign an appropriate sanction, which may be more severe than the recommended sanction. Decisions of the SRB are final and not subject to further appeal.

Based upon the SRB’s review, OSCAI will notify the respondent, and if necessary the individual complainant, in writing of sanctions via their VCU email address. A decision by the SRB that results in a student being suspended or expelled from the university must be approved by the Senior Vice Provost for Student Affairs (SVPSA) or designee.

4- Violation Established – Student Conduct Board (SCB):

Respondent disagrees with finding of responsibility

If the student denies responsibility for violating the specified provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, OSCAI will schedule a SCB hearing to consider the information and evidence and make a determination concerning the allegations and, if necessary, any sanctions. The SCB is comprised of four University Community members with at least one student, one staff or instructional faculty member, and a non-voting chair. OSCAI will notify the respondent of the date, time and location of the hearing at least five business days prior to the scheduled SCB hearing. If the respondent (and/or the complainant, if appropriate) fails to attend the scheduled SCB hearing, the hearing will proceed in the student’s absence and the student’s ability to appeal the SCB hearing decision may be limited.

A SCB hearing typically consists of the following components:

• Introduction and procedural rules presented by the SCB chair.
• Introductory statement and presentation of information by Student Conduct Administrator and/or complainant.
• Witnesses presented by the Student Conduct Administrator and/or complainant if any.
• Introductory statement and presentation of information by the respondent.
• Witnesses presented by the respondent if any.
• Closing statement by Student Conduct Administrator and/or complainant.
• Closing statement by respondent.
• Closed session deliberation by SCB.

Witnesses will provide information to and answer questions from the SCB. The respondent or complainant may propose questions to the chairperson to be asked of the other party or witnesses. The chairperson will determine whether proposed questions or information will be presented.

All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the chairperson of the SCB.

There shall be a single record, such as a digital recording, of all SCB hearings excluding deliberations. The record shall be the property of the University and maintained securely consistent with university standards.

When the alleged victim is serving as the complainant or as a witness, alternative testimony options will be available, such as allowing the alleged victim to testify via electronic means.

The SCB will determine, by majority vote, if the respondent is responsible for the charges based on a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing. The SCB will notify the Director of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity or designee of the determination and any recommended sanctions. The Director of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity or designee will determine the final sanctions and notify the respondent, and if appropriate the complainant, within five business days of the SCB hearing in writing via their VCU e-mail address.

Any appeal of the SCB’s decision must be made by the respondent in writing to the OSCAI (see section 5: “Formal Appeals Process”) within five business days following the date of the notification. The OSCAI will then forward the appeal as well as a written statement responding to the appeal from the Student Conduct Administrator to a Campus Appeal Board (CAB). The CAB is comprised of three University Community members with at least one student and one staff or instructional faculty member. The CAB will review the respondent's written appeal as well as the written statement of the Student Conduct Administrator. The CAB will then make one of two recommendations to the SVPSA or designee concerning the appeal: (1) uphold the SCB determination, or (2) remand the matter to the SCB. The SVPSA or designee will review the recommendation of the CAB, make a final determination concerning the respondent’s appeal and notify the respondent of that outcome. The SVPSA or designee, in their sole discretion, may accept the CAB recommendation or reject the recommendation and remand or render an alternative finding.

5 - Formal Appeals Process
All appeals to the SRB and CAB must be in writing using the appropriate Appeal Form (provided by OSCAI). All appeals must be submitted to OSCAI within (5) business days following the date of the SRB’s or CAB’s decision. Appeals to the CAB may be based only on one or both of the following two criteria:

1. New and pertinent evidence or information has come to light.
2. A procedural error occurred that would have impacted the outcome of case.

The written appeal must contain any and all information relevant to the appeal, including any new evidence or information when new and pertinent evidence is the selected appeal ground. After receipt of the appeal, the Student Conduct Administrator and/or Complainant may submit a statement responding to the claims or issues presented by the written appeal. The OSCAI will submit the written appeal and all other written statements to the SRB or CAB, as applicable.

FAQ

Q: What is the policy regarding alcohol and other drugs?
A: Students under the age of 21 may not procure, possess, or consume alcoholic beverages. Additionally, students may not manufacture, distribute, dispense, possess or use illegal or illicit drugs. Please see the university's Alcohol and Other Drugs policy.

Q: If I did not commit the violation of which I am being accused, why do I need to respond?
A: All allegations of misconduct will be investigated. The investigation process affords the respondent the right to respond to and refute the allegation. If it is determined that a respondent is not responsible for the alleged misconduct, the matter will then be closed with no formal action taken against the respondent.

Q: What does a hold on my registration mean?
A: Your registration may be blocked for failure to schedule or attend a meeting regarding an alleged violation or failure to comply with a sanction. In such circumstances, the hold is removed once you schedule and attend your conduct meeting, or upon completion of the sanction.

Additionally, students classified as seniors or nearing the end of their graduate/professional program shall have a degree hold imposed pending the adjudication of the alleged misconduct, including all appeal options.

Q: What if I am off campus at the time of the alleged violation?
A: The University Student Code of Conduct may apply to any conduct by a student whether on University property, at VCU-sponsored activities, or at off-campus locations.

Q: Can my case go through the courts and the university conduct process?
A: Yes. They are entirely independent and separate process. University disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that may violate criminal or civil law and the Student Code of Conduct (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation). Proceedings under the Student Code of Conduct may be initiated and carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under the Student Code of Conduct shall not be subject to change because of the criminal or civil outcomes. The concept of ‘double jeopardy’ applied in criminal settings is not applicable to a University proceeding.

Q: What is FERPA?
A: The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA, 1974) affords students the right to consent to disclose their educational records. A student can authorize in writing to have a designated person access confidential academic information. Additional resources can be found here: https://rar.vcu.edu/records/family-educational-rights-and-privacy-act/

Q: Will my parents or guardians be notified of a violation?
A: When a student under the age of 21 is found responsible for violating alcohol, drugs, and/or controlled substance laws or policies, the student’s parents or guardians may be notified. The notification will include information concerning the violation, the university sanctions, and reiterate the University’s expectations for future behavior.

NOTE: Residential Life and Housing or the Dean of Students may notify parents, guardians, or others in connection with a health or safety emergency.

Q: Will my records be released for a background check?

A: A student may need to provide a disciplinary history to a third party for a study abroad program, graduate school, employment, etc. With a signed release by the student, the University may release to the external agency disciplinary records as requested by the student and generally related to suspension or expulsion.

Q: What conduct records are maintained and for how long?

A: All student conduct records are maintained in an electronic database for a minimum of seven (7) years, in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. If an individual receives additional sanctions during the seven-year period, records of all violations will be retained until there is a period of seven years following the most recent incident. If an individual is suspended or expelled, complete records of the proceedings and all pertinent documents, including records of previous lesser sanctions, shall be maintained permanently.

Q: What sanctions are recorded on a student’s transcript?

A: Suspensions and expulsions are noted on a student’s transcript.

Q: If a respondent is found responsible for arson, assault, battery, or endangering health and safety, and an identified party is the victim of such behavior, will the identified party be notified of the outcome of the respondent’s student conduct process?

A: Yes. The University will consider the interest of an individual victim of arson, assault, battery, or endangering health or safety and may notify them of the outcome of the respondent’s student conduct process.
